Definitions used in this agreement

Product: The product is defined as having the following components: Compact Data ASCII Files, The Admiralty Manual of Navigation Volume 2 BR45(2) Chapter 3, The NavPac Installer program, NavPac Setup Wizard, NavPac 4 and its Associated Libraries, NavPac Help File, NavPac Manual, NavPac Data Files and Examples. It also includes any subsequent updates to any component part.

The Application and its Associated Libraries: These are defined as the NavPac.exe file and all .dll files installed using the NavPac Installer and the NavPac Setup Wizard. It also includes additional libraries and modified libraries that may be installed at a later date as part of the updating process.

Documentation: The Admiralty Manual of Navigation Volume 2 BR45(2) Chapter 3, NavPac Help File and NavPac Manual form the Documentation, although additional documentation may be provided at a later date as part of the updating process.

Data generated by this Application and its Associated Libraries: Data derived during the use of the Application and its Associated Libraries, including but not limited to: Diagrams, Charts and Text.

Use: NavPac is intended to assist in the practise of celestial/astro navigation and the training of this activity. It is not to be used to produce data for any other commercial purpose except in the circumstance where written permission has been obtained from the UKHO explicitly allowing data to be produced for the approved purpose.

You: Yourself or the group or company you represent and any individual, group or company who you allow to use this product.

Disclaimer of Liability

This product (including all files, software and documentation) is provided as is, without warranty of any kind, either expressed or implied, including but not limited to implied warranties of merchantability or fitness for purpose.

The UKHO is not liable for loss or damage arising out of or in connection with use of the product by the user (except in case of death or personal injury solely and directly attributable to negligence by the UKHO, unless this can be excluded under local law), in contract, tort, under statute or otherwise and whether or not arising out of any negligence on the part of the UKHO in respect of any inadequacy of any kind whatsoever in the product.

The UKHO shall make all reasonable efforts to ensure that the Product is accurate and error free. The End User acknowledges that some products and services that can be accessed and obtained via the use of the Product are third party products and services which the UKHO has no control over and that the UKHO will not be responsible for the content or accuracy of these. In these circumstances separate licence terms may apply and the End User should review these carefully before agreeing to use the products and services to which those third party terms apply.
